

KNDS

ETHICS CHARTER

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Editorial	5
Chapter 1	Code of Conduct Regarding External Relations	6	Chapter 2	Code of Conduct Regarding Internal Relations	12
Chapter 1.1	Abidance by the Law	6	Chapter 2.1	Respect	12
Chapter 1.1.1	Complying with Laws and Regulations	6	Chapter 2.2	Discrimination and Harassment	12
Chapter 1.1.2	Preventing Corruption and Bribery	6	Chapter 2.3	Human rights and Fair Compensation	12
Chapter 1.1.3	Respecting Competition and Anti-Trust Laws	7	Chapter 2.4	Freedom of Association	12
Chapter 1.1.4	Money Laundering	7	Chapter 2.5	Health and Safety	12
Chapter 1.1.5	Export Control	7	Chapter 2.6	Data Protection and Privacy	12
Chapter 1.1.6	Tax Compliance	7	Chapter 2.7	Protection of Group Information	12
Chapter 1.2	Third Party Relations	8	Chapter 2.8	Reliability	13
Chapter 1.2.1	Treating Partners Fairly	8	Chapter 2.9	Respect for Group Property and Assets	13
Chapter 1.2.2	Treating Suppliers Fairly	8
Chapter 1.2.3	Government Procurement	8	Chapter 3	Reporting of Violations, Concerns and Complaints	14
Chapter 1.2.4	Working with Sales Partners	9
Chapter 1.2.5	Gifts and Hospitality	9	Chapter 4	Implementation and Further Guidance	15
Chapter 1.2.6	Political Contributions	9
Chapter 1.2.7	Charitable Contributions and Sponsorship	9
Chapter 1.3	Conduct	10
Chapter 1.3.1	Conflicts of Interest	10
Chapter 1.3.2	Confidentiality and Duty of Discretion	10
Chapter 1.3.3	Environment	10

¹Public officials include:

- Persons serving with, employed by or an agent of any agency or entity of the national, state or municipal governments of any country;
- Persons serving with, employed by or an agent of any political party or political campaign organisation;
- Political candidates;
- Persons serving with, employed by or an agent of any public international organisation (such as the NATO or the United Nations or the European Union);
- Employees of any government-owned or government-controlled commercial enterprise;
- Family members of any such persons identified above.

DEAR COLLEAGUES

When we founded KNDS, we were convinced of this: The future of land defence in Europe had to be conceived and driven forward on a European scale. This conviction is more relevant today than ever before. KNDS is managed in an integrated manner and will continue to grow, not only economically but also structurally. We are an attractive partner: for our customers, for our suppliers and for other companies in the European defence industry.

Our good reputation is based on our experience, our expertise and the outstanding quality of our products and solutions. At the same time, it is also based on integrity and respect in business dealings and the courage to stand up for our values and convictions.

Only on this basis will enduring business success be possible. Soon after KNDS was founded, we therefore presented you with our company's Ethics Charter, which sets out our stance and conduct in concrete terms. I am pleased that we can now provide you with an updated version.

Our current Ethics Charter complements the local laws and regulations that apply within the company and for the country in which you operate.

The KNDS Ethics Charter provides guidance on the ethics and values shared by all members of the KNDS Group. In this way, it helps in situations where decisions have to be made or conflicts have to be avoided. Our goal is for all employees of the KNDS Group to fully understand the values we consider important in our daily work.

It is the duty of each and every one of us to fulfil the commitment to integrity and ethical behaviour set out in the Ethics Charter. Please take the time to read through this Charter – and truly live it together with all of us.

Yours sincerely,
Frank Haun

1 CODE OF CONDUCT REGARDING EXTERNAL RELATIONS

1.1 ABIDANCE BY THE LAW

1.1.1 Complying with Laws and Regulations

The business of the Group must always be carried out in compliance with local laws and regulations, including those applicable to its industry, and with integrity and respect for ethical principles. It is the responsibility of each employee to know and understand the legal framework applicable to his or her activities.

1.1.2 Preventing Corruption and Bribery

The Group is committed to conducting business in an honest and ethical manner and complying with all applicable anti-bribery and anti-corruption laws and regulations in its worldwide operations.

The Group prohibits all bribery or corruption, whether made for the benefit of, or received from, any third party, whether public or private. No employee is allowed to offer, promise or provide any pecuniary advantage or any other advantage to any person, whether private individuals or public officials¹, with a view to improperly obtaining or retaining business, rewarding a decision or securing any facility or favour that infringes regulations. Nor may they respond to solicitations with the same objective. This applies whether the improper advantage is made directly or indirectly, including by requesting assistance from a third party, such as a sales partner, a supplier, a contractor, a joint venture or a consortium partner. The Group prohibits any so-called “kickbacks”. Kickbacks are a form of bribery where one party obtains an undue advantage, and a portion of the undue advantage is “kicked back” to the individual who gave or will give the undue advantage. It differs from other forms of bribery in that it implies a form of collusion between the two parties. The Group prohibits any facilitation payment given to government officials. Facilitation payments are used to facilitate mandatory administrative procedures and formalities normally carried out through the proper legal channels.

Each company belonging to the Group must record payments and other compensation in its corporate books, records and accounts in a timely manner and in reasonable detail, such in accordance with locally applicable rules and regulations. No undisclosed or unrecorded accounts may be established for any purpose. False, misleading, incomplete, inaccurate or artificial entries in the books and records are prohibited. Personal funds may not be used to accomplish what is otherwise prohibited.

1.1.3 Respecting Competition and Anti-Trust Laws

Competition and anti-trust laws ensure that the free market system works properly and that competition among companies is fair. The Group is dedicated to competing fairly and complying with the applicable competition regulations at all times, regardless of location.

No employee may exchange information or reach an agreement, neither written nor verbal or tacit, on customers, territories, prices or price components, terms and conditions etc. that contravene existing regulations and laws.

1.1.4 Money Laundering

Money laundering is a process in which the ownership, destination and origin of illegally obtained money is concealed or disguised with the objective of making it appear to originate from a legitimate source. Money laundering is strictly prohibited by law. Employees are strictly forbidden from participating in or facilitating transactions of which the purpose is to disguise the origin of the funds. Employees are allowed to conduct only legitimate business activities and may not accept or handle cash or other assets that they have a reason to suspect are the proceeds of a crime.

1.1.5 Export Control

The Group respects and acts responsibly in accordance with local, national or international laws and regulations as well as established embargoes, boycotts or other trade restrictions on goods, services, software or technology.

Employees involved in international trade must ensure that all activities comply with the latest applicable regulations and seek guidance from experts. Failure to observe these laws and regulations could expose both the Group and the employees involved to severe sanctions, including prohibition of future exports.

1.1.6 Tax Compliance

The Group ensures that the tax rules applicable to its business in accordance with international conventions and national laws are respected in all countries where the Group operates. The Group therefore complies with its obligations with regard to taxes and customs and explicitly endorses compliance with national and international legislation.

1 CODE OF CONDUCT REGARDING EXTERNAL RELATIONS

1.2 THIRD PARTY RELATIONS

1.2.1 Treating Partners Fairly

All employees should respect the rights of, and deal fairly with, customers, partners and competitors. They are prohibited from taking unfair advantage of any person or organisation through manipulation, concealment, abuse of confidential information, misrepresentation of material facts or any other intentional unfair dealing practice.

1.2.2 Treating Suppliers Fairly

All suppliers are treated fairly. Purchasing decisions are based on objective criteria that include, among others, price, quality, performance, delivery periods, sustainable development with the aim of satisfying the requirements of the Group's customers.

All selected suppliers must be enterprises that operate their businesses in compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

1.2.3 Government Procurement

Contracts with government-owned or public entities require compliance with very high and complex standards. The Group complies with the laws and regulations that govern the acquisition of goods and services by governments in all its operations, including specific regulations on competition and laws prohibiting attempts to influence government officials.

Where government contracts involve the possession, use of or access to classified or otherwise restricted information, it is essential that employees strictly follow the security procedures applicable to such information.

Care must be taken in respect of the hiring of former government employees or their family members. The hiring process must be carefully reviewed and approved by the Human Resources Department in consultation with the Compliance Department of the relevant Group company.

1.2.4 Working with Sales Partners

Sales partners are third parties providing sales and marketing services in a defined territory relating to specific company activities, who may act for or on behalf of KNDS or its subsidiaries, and who may be in contact with potential or existing customers or with any public or private authorities.

To prevent public and private corruption, the use of sales partners is strictly governed by internal procedures. This ethics charter will be made applicable to sales partners as referred to herein.

1.2.5 Gifts and Hospitality

Employees may only offer or receive gifts or advantages in conformity with local laws and in compliance with internal policies.

When offered, such gifts or advantages must be strictly limited to expressions of courtesy, and must not be made for the purpose of influencing behaviour or remunerating a service. Any gift or invitation offered in the context of a business relationship must not be presented under conditions that might be seen to be dubious. Such expenses are duly listed and entered into the financial accounts.

Employees must not accept gifts, travel, meals or other benefits from third parties that could affect their objectivity and professional judgement. Any gifts, hospitality or other benefits that the employee considers to be a bribe must be refused.

1.2.6 Political Contributions

Political contributions may only be made in strict conformity with the specific national legal framework that is applicable.

1.2.7 Charitable Contributions and Sponsorship

Charitable contributions are part of the Group's involvement in communities. Sponsorship is part of the marketing and communication strategy. Employees of the Group may not make charitable donations or sponsorship whether in their own name or in the name of a company belonging to the Group to obtain or retain business or gain an improper business advantage. Any charitable contributions or sponsorships must be allowed under local law and companies' procedures and made to or for a bona fide organisation. Any known connection of a government official to any organisation receiving a proposed contribution must be identified.

1 CODE OF CONDUCT REGARDING EXTERNAL RELATIONS

1.3 CONDUCT

1.3.1 Conflicts of Interest

Employees must avoid finding themselves in a situation where direct or indirect extra-professional interests, in particular personal interests, are in conflict with those of the Group and influence or alter the independence or integrity of their professional conduct. Any employee who finds himself or herself in a conflict of interest situation must immediately inform his or her manager to determine if the individual must excuse himself or herself from participation in the activities concerned, preserving the Group's interests.

1.3.2 Confidentiality and Duty of Discretion

Employees will comply with an obligation of discretion and confidentiality in relation to information, data or documents whether of a commercial, technical, strategic or financial nature that they become aware of in the context of their professional functions. Obligations with respect to such information continue beyond the term of employment.

They must refrain from any behaviour or attitude that is likely to adversely affect the image or reputation of the Group.

1.3.3 Environment

The Group operates with continuous concern for respect for the environment. In accordance with sustainable development, the Group's commitment also includes compliance with current environmental rules and regulations and business standards, and improved environmental performance in areas such as waste management and prevention, soil and atmospheric pollution, and water and energy consumption.

2 CODE OF CONDUCT REGARDING INTERNAL RELATIONS

2.1 Respect

The Group learns from and respects the cultures with which it interacts. The Group has an inclusive work environment that values the uniqueness and diversity of individual talents, experiences and ideas that help each employee to fully participate and contribute to the success of the Group.

2.2 Discrimination and Harassment

Within the framework of applicable national laws and regulations, the Group is committed to providing a business environment free of discrimination and harassment but with equal opportunities. It will not tolerate discrimination or harassment of any kind, including but not limited to that based on ethnic origin, religion, gender, age, disability, political beliefs, marital status or sexual orientation.

The Group supports the fundamental dignity of all business partners and employees and will not tolerate any sexual, coercive or exploitative behaviour (including language, gestures or physical contact).

2.3 Human rights and Fair Compensation

The Group respects internationally recognized human rights and supports their observance. We reject all forms of forced and child labor. We recognize the right of all employees to appropriate compensation. Pay and other benefits shall at least comply with the respective national or local legal standards or the standards in the national economic sectors/industries and regions.

2.4 Freedom of Association

The Group recognises the freedom of association of its employees and respects their rights to form or join a trade union or other worker organisation on a democratic basis and in compliance with local and international laws and regulations and enterprise agreements. Any employee who carries out associative activities does so exclusively on a personal basis and must ensure that there is no confusion with his or her professional activities.

2.5 Health and Safety

It is the Group's policy to comply with all applicable safety laws and regulations. Employees will report to their local health and safety officer any conditions they perceive to be unsafe, unhealthy or hazardous.

2.6 Data Protection and Privacy

The Group respects the privacy of its employees, business partners and customers, and acts in compliance with their legal and contractual obligations.

No data will be collected, processed or disclosed for unlawful or unauthorised purposes.

2.7 Protection of Group Information

Each Group company or employee who holds classified information will comply with prescribed measures ensuring its protection.

Before disclosing confidential information to a third party, the disclosing employee or Group company must ensure that the communication or disclosure of such information is protected by a non-disclosure agreement and does not prejudice the interests of the Group.

2.8 Reliability

Employees must ensure the correctness of the information and documents, whether internal or external, that they are responsible for.

The Group is responsible for ensuring that the accounts and accounting statements sent to authorities, shareholders and other parties are genuine and comply with the applicable laws, regulations and standards so that lawful and complete information is presented.

2.9 Respect for Group Property and Assets

Employees contribute to the protection of Group property and assets, both tangible and intangible, and undertake to use them in conformity with their professional purpose.

Particular care must be taken in preventing any attempt at fraud, theft or misuse for personal purposes or for third parties.

An improper activity is any activity that is undertaken in the performance of official duties for the Group, whether or not that action is within the scope of an employee's prerogative, and that might negatively affect the Group and/or is in violation of any applicable law or regulation. This may include, but is not limited to, corruption, bribery, theft of property, fraudulent claims, fraud, coercion, malicious prosecution, misuse of property, wilful omission to perform a duty, or conduct otherwise involving gross misconduct, incompetence or a violation of the ethics charter or any policy and procedure in place.

No sanctions or retaliation may be taken against any employee who, in good faith, provides information on what the person considers to be a breach or risk of a breach of this ethics charter.

A person disclosing an allegation of (suspected) improper activities as referred to above is commonly referred to as a whistleblower. A whistleblower may be an employee of the Group, an applicant for employment, a vendor, a contractor or a member of the general public. The whistleblower's role is solely as a reporting party and he or she may report improper activity to the Chief Compliance Officer (France) or the compliance department (Germany), respectively. The identity of the whistleblower will not be disclosed, unless the whistleblower's permission to do so is obtained, or when this disclosure is required by law.

In addition, the Group offers to a whistleblower the opportunity to submit a report anonymously and confidentially via an electronic compliance hotline. The same applies to risks and vulnerabilities that could lead to legal violations.

The Group takes potential violations very seriously and will fairly review each allegation. Actual violations of applicable laws or Group policy may lead to disciplinary actions, judicial actions or termination of a contractual relationship. Any violation or allegation thereof will be reviewed by the Chief Compliance Officer (France) or the compliance department (Germany), respectively, and treated in accordance with the applicable rules.

The secure and confidential electronic whistleblower portal can be accessed at any time and, if you wish, anonymously via <https://kmw.integrityline.app> for KNDS Germany or by e-mail to Alerte-Ethique@knds.fr for KNDS France.

Compliance with this ethics charter is the responsibility of all employees, both individually and collectively.

All employees, irrespective of the country that they work in, their hierarchical level or job function, must comply with this ethics charter. Any breach of the ethics charter will be dealt with in compliance with the applicable rules.

The managers of the Group companies are responsible for implementation of the ethics charter and the education of employees in that respect. It is noted that the ethics charter also applies to managers of such Group companies.

The purpose of this ethics charter is not to cover all circumstances or anticipate every situation that could arise. When encountering situations not specifically addressed by this ethics charter, one should maintain the highest ethical standards observed in the industry in which the Group operates.

In order to determine whether an ethical issue exists, the following questions offer a starting point:

- Is this action lawful?
- Is this action compliant with the ethics charter, procedures, policies and corporate culture?
- Is it harmless to the Group or to me if this action becomes public?
- Would I want my actions to be published on the front page of a newspaper?
- Would I want someone to act the same way towards me?

If the answer to any of these questions is "no", the action is in principal deemed not to be compliant with this ethics charter and, if relevant, is to be reported as referred to in chapter 3 of this ethics charter.

In the event of doubt over the conduct to adopt or in the event of a difficulty in the interpretation or application of this ethics charter or any other rule, one should consult the Chief Compliance Officer (France) or the compliance department (Germany), respectively, as referred to in chapter 3 of this ethics charter:

KNDS N.V.
compliance@knds.nl

Nexter S.A. and subsidiaries
Referent-Ethique@knds.fr

Krauss-Maffei Wegmann Gmbh & Co. KG and subsidiaries compliance@knds.de

KNDS

KNDS N.V.
Gustav Mahlerlaan 1017
Mahler 1000, 3rd floor
1082 MK Amsterdam
Netherlands

www.knds.com